CM offers bagina at KRS, Kabini

CM Basavaraj Bommai, along with his wife Chennamma, offering traditional bagina to River Cauvery at KRS Dam in Srirangapatna taluk, Mandya district, this noon and to River Kapila (pic. right) at Kabini reservoir in Beechanahalli, H.D. Kote taluk, Mysuru, earlier this morning. Ministers, Legislators and officials were present.

Mysuru, July 20 (PM, RKB & BCT)- Continuing the tradition of Karnataka Chief Ministers offering bagina to the Dams after they fill to the brim, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, along with his wife Chennamma, offered bagina to Kabini and the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dams this morning.

After landing at the Mysore Airport in Mandakalli, the CM headed to Chamundi Hill by road along with his wife to pray to the presiding deity Goddess Chamundeshwari today, the day of Chamundeshwari Vardhanti (birthday). Later, he again arrived at the Airport to take the chopper to land at Beechanahalli Helipad near the Kabini Dam. After offering the bagina at Kabini, the chopper headed to the Helipad near the KRS Dam.

The 'bagina,' placed on the traditional 'mora,' contained saree, blouse piece, flowers, fruits, bangles, arashina-kumkuma and rice. The rituals were led by a team of priests at both the Dams. The CM prayed for the well-being of the State and its people and expressed happiness over both the Dams filling to the brim early this year.

The maximum level of Kabini Dam is 2,284 ft. and today, the same level was maintained as the CM had to do the honours. Even the KRS Dam's maximum level of 124.80 ft. was maintained. Ministers Govinda Karajol and S.T. Somashekar, MLAs Anil Chikkamadu, B. Harshavardhan and others were present. At KRS Dam, Ministers K. Gopalaiah and K.C. Narayanagowda and MLA Ravindra Srikantaiah accompanied the CM.

Statue impasse at Gun House Circle

Pramoda Devi Wadiyar writes to Suttur Seer to reconsider decision

Pramoda Devi Suttur Seer

Mysuru, July 20 (BCT)- Member of erstwhile Mysore royal family and wife of late Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar, Pramoda Devi Wadiyar has written to Suttur Mutt Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji urging him to reconsider his plans to install the statue of late Suttur Seer Dr. Sri Shivarathri Rajendra Swamiji at the Gun House Circle near the Palace.

The letter, written on July 15, 2022, appealed to the Seer to facilitate the erection of Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar's statue at the spot — near the South Gate of the Mysore Palace. The Gun House Circle is situated in front of JSS Mahavidyapeetha building as well as near the South Gate of the Mysore Palace.

The circular foundation built for installing the statue about four years back.

It may be mentioned here that the statue issue has been a bone of contention between different organisations and groups. While one group is advocating the installation of Sri Rajendra Swamiji's statue, the other is demanding Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar's statue there.

Citing the presence of the statue of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar at K.R. Circle, Chamaraja Wadiyar's statue at North Gate of the Palace and Jayachamaraja Wadiyar's statue at Hardinge Circle, Pramoda Devi Wadiyar has said that all the Circles surrounding the Palace featured the statues of the late Maharajas and the statue of Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar at the Gun House Circle would be ideal and proper.

She urged the Suttur Seer to kindly reconsider his plan to install the statue of late Suttur Seer Sri Rajendra Swamiji in view of the public desire that is in favour of Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar's statue at the designated place.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

UNIVERSAL HEALTH COVERAGE: Though governments bore the cost of COVID in most cases, lakhs of people had to spend huge amounts of money on COVID treatment. Pandemic aside, the rampaging non-communicable diseases (NCDs) are wreaking havoc. The steep medical bills to treat NCDs have pushed lakhs of people to poverty. Doctor-people ratio: Improving the ratio is critical. Efforts of the Union and State governments to increase the number of medical seats in the last few years are laudable. But every district needs to have a medical college and a hospital, as they are the pillars of tertiary treatment at the district level.

Communicable and non-communicable diseases such as TB, cancer and neurodegenerative diseases are slowly raising their ugly head. These have to be tackled on a war-footing or these 'slow pandemics' can wreak havoc. Government healthcare spending needs to be increased from less than 2% now to at least 5% of the GDP to make adequate funds available to achieve these goals. We have learned some painful lessons at the expense of far too many lives, but the public and private sectors are now working together to ensure that every citizen has access to universal, viable, sustainable and inexpensive healthcare. — *Dr. H. New England distillery creates crab-infused spirit

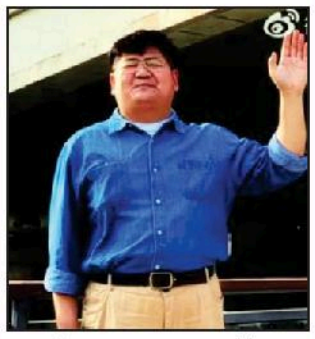
New Hampshire: A New England distillery specialising in bourbon whisky has joined the fight against an invasive crab species by using the crustaceans to create a surprisingly tasty crab-infused spirit.

New England's fishermen have been complaining about green crabs devouring their shell-fisheries for a while now, but with no natural predators to worry about and increasing sea temperatures working in their favour, there is little anyone can do to stop them. But Tamworth Distillery has come up with a way to fight the invasive species while expanding its business. They created a crab-infused bourbon aptly-named Crab Trapper.

The Crab Trapper whisky initiative is trying to raise awareness about the green crab problem New England is facing. The invasive species is ravaging the entire coastline, destroying fisheries and relocating entire ecosystems.

This man is only 25 years old



Beijing: A 25-year-old man from Zhengzhou recently got his five minutes of online fame after photos of him went viral online because of his unusually old appearance.

The man, Zhu, doesn't suffer from a rare condition that makes him look unnaturally old for his age. He just has the look of a man in his mid-40s, despite being only 25 years old. Photos of him wearing out-of-fashion garments, sporting eyeglasses and a much too serious hairdo have attracted a lot of attention on social media, spurring a number of humorous comments.

Beautification works near MCC

Commissioner's house shrinks pavement

Storm water drains filled up with concrete

Sir,

After a long time, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) is beautifying the pavement between Vani Vilas Water Works (VVWW) and the Corporation Commissioner's residence in Yadavagiri. This was much needed and the residents in the neighbourhood are thankful for the same.

However, it is disappointing to notice that the size of the pavement has been shrunk by more than a foot to widen the road. This will endanger pedestrians who are likely to walk on the road.

Also, the raised pavement on a small road is likely to be hazardous to motorists, especially two-wheeler riders.

For some inexplicable reasons, the pavement has been entirely done away with in front of the MCC Commissioner's house and water overflowing from tankers is destroying the Railway property, needless to say built with tax-payers' money, on an hourly basis.

Shockingly (and illegally too?) MCC has chosen to fill up the storm water drains with concrete. That this should all happen in front of the Corporation Commissioner's house and not very far from the home of the Corporator of Ward No.18, is a sad commentary.

Hope, the MCC Commissioner will look into these ad hoc cosmetic moves before it is too late.

Hunsur, July 20- Hunsur Police have arrested three youths, accused in stabbing their friend for posting derogatory message on social media. The youth had succumbed to injuries at K.R. Hospital in Mysuru on July 13 early morning.

Those arrested are 23-year-old Nithin alias Vatara, a resident of Gokul Road in the town, 24-year-old Manoj Kumar alias Motu, a resident of Kalkunike Housing Board and 25-year-old Potharaj. The accused had stabbed Beeresh (23), son of Kuchelagowda and a resident of Angathahalli village in the taluk, who later died.

Chairing the Dasara High Powered Committee meeting at Vidhana Soudha last evening, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, accompanied by senior officers and a host of elected representatives from Mysuru took a decision on a grand Dasara celebration where aggressive publicity for the festival will be done over the next two to three months.

"We will create the 'Mysuru Dasara' brand and go for an international publicity campaign to make it a major global event. We will also publicise the event in all metro cities like Bengaluru, Chennai, Hyderabad, Mumbai and New Delhi and the Commissioner of Information and Public Relations Department has been instructed to hold publicity campaigns," the CM said.

The Government has also decided that the Mysuru Dasara emblem should be published in all Government advertisements, notifications and social media platforms.

Many events, like a grand Gajapayana — marking the entry of the elephants from the jungles to the Mysore Palace — that is part of the main festival and that had to be made simple due to COVID, will also resume. This year, the Gajapayana will be held on Aug. 7

The traditional Gajapayana involving villagers and forest dwellers would draw greater participation of the rural masses, Bommai said. As for cultural events, it has been decided to encourage local talent and performance by at least one national-level artist daily, the CM said. This year, there are plans to start the Mysuru Dasara exhibition 15 days ahead of the festival, he added.

Mysuru Tourism Circuit

A Government Order on 'Mysuru Tourism Circuit' would be issued within a week and tourism promotion programmes would be formulated by the Tourism Department in association with private players. The circuit would include Belur, Halebeedu and other places. The proposal of Tourism Circuit has already been mentioned in the Budget and plans will be formulated to implement the same.

An all-inclusive single ticket package covering travel, accommodation and other aspects would be introduced. An exclusive website too is being developed for this purpose. This would complement the initiatives for Mysuru Dasara. With one ticket, a tourist will be able to spend 3-5 days inclusive of travel and stay. This can be made use of during the Dasara, the CM said, adding that a similar order will be issued for a Hampi Tourism Circuit.

Delay in Expressway works

Mysuru District Minister S.T. Somashekar said that the CM will decide on the Dasara guest. On the inauguration of the 10-lane Expressway between Mysuru and Bengaluru during Dasara, the CM said that the works had been delayed due to heavy rain. "The road will be inaugurated one month after Dasara," Bommai said.

Dasara Authority

Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda has again demanded the formation of the Dasara Authority. He told the meeting that the elected representatives from Mysuru have been demanding Dasara Authority for many years but the Government has not taken any decision on that.

Dasara Authority would streamline the way the festivities are conducted in coordination with several departments, agencies and public, where immediate decisions can be taken on the celebrations, finance and other aspects, the MLA added.

MLA S.A. Ramdas urged the meeting to take the Dasara celebrations to an international level by writing about the festival to the ambassadors of different countries who are in India. He also urged to highlight the 75 years of India's independence and also display the advancements in military science as achieved in India thus far.

Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, MP Pratap Simha, MLAs Tanveer Sait, L. Nagendra, S.R. Mahesh, B. Harshavardhan, K. Mahadev, H.P. Manjunath, Ravindra Srikantaiah, MLCs A.H. Vishwanath, C.N. Manjegowda, Dr. D. Thimmaiah, Madhu Madegowda, MUDA Chairman (now ceased) H.V. Rajeev, DC Dr. Bagadi Gautham, City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta, Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya were present.

Plea to launch Dasara Gold Cards early

Mysuru, July 20- Federation of Organisations and Associations of Mysuru (FOAM) President B.S. Prashanth has urged the Government to take steps to release Dasara Gold Cards well ahead of this year's Dasara festivities. This would facilitate tourism promotion and would help the tour and travel operators.

The Dasara authorities usually start issuing Gold Cards, a premium pass providing hassle-free entry to all tourist destinations, just a week or two to three days before the celebrations. Early release of Dasara Gold Cards instead of launching them at the last minute would help tourism promotion as many tourists make bookings in advance. If the Gold Cards are issued late, the business opportunity would be lost, he added.

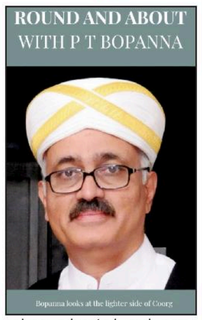
A book on the lighter side of Coorg



Yesterday morning as I sat at my working desk, there sat a brown cover addressed to me on the table.

It came from Palanganda T. Bopanna, a journalist author from Bengaluru. Inside was a thin book with a thick hard cover embellished with the photograph of the author in his ethnic Kodava headgear of a peta adorned with a pattern of golden strap crossing each other as if hugging the peta. The title of the book is quite revealing and says what it contains:

'Round And About With P.T. Bopanna' with a bottom line: Bopanna looks at the lighter side of Coorg. Himself being a Kodava (Coorg), his writings here are of Kodagu related subjects or about himself with VIPs. I finished reading it in one hour and here I am writing about it. This was possible because each of the 25 pieces inside, including the Foreword by the Kodava iconic Fashion Guru of India Prasad Bidapa and the Epilogue, are no longer than two or three pages in fairly larger font and pictures. Good reading for those familiar with Kodagu (Coorg) and the people written about in the book.

There is a Preface also by the author and I was delighted to find the names of Mr. Boverianda Chinnappa and Mrs. Nanjamma Chinnappa, now residents of Mysuru, being mentioned for their "valuable suggestions" in bringing out this thin book of 68 pages. "The couple has been a source of strength to me in my book and web ventures," he writes in gratitude.

As a Kodava myself, I know there are any number of Kodavas all over the world engaged in different activities and pursing professions who have become great achievers. Kodava people belong to a microscopic minority as a population who lived in a land of their own known as Kodagu ruled by Nayaks and then Kings and then the British, now a district in Karnataka.

The land area cannot increase but population increases. As a result when the family grew, its land-holding was not sufficient for running the family. Perforce they got themselves educated and some members had to leave Kodagu and then Kodava (Coorg) diaspora became a reality. Fortunately those who went out of Kodagu, a great majority of them, are doing well and very well. Some of them became celebrities and some are recognised by the governments. But there are other achievers who remain without public recognition but doing very well in their given profession, business or industry.

One example for anonymous achievers and distinguished persons among Kodavas is given in the book itself in the person for whom the book is dedicated (page 3). He is Pemanda Monappa Belliappa, a retired IAS Officer of Tamil Nadu.

Acknowledged as an outstanding administrator, Belliappa was decorated with MBE (Member of the British Empire) by the Queen of England. More than this, he established 'Pemanda Monappa Scholarship' in Cambridge University in perpetuity, in the name of his father, Pemanda Monappa, former Karnataka Inspector General of Police. Nearer home, he has also made handsome donation to the Coorg Education Fund, Madikeri. People like Belliappa are indeed the pride of Kodagu. There are many such Stars of Kodagu!

Bopanna, who claims to be a chronicler of Kodagu or Kodavas, may also venture to trace all those achievers among them, after independence of our country (1947) and publish a book with their biodata. This would be a great contribution from him to the Kodava people.

Statue impasse at Gun House Circle

Another view of the Gun House Circle.

Several people had submitted requisitions to her to take steps to install her late husband's statue at Gun House Circle. "I would wholeheartedly welcome the magnanimity shown by you to reconsider the installation of the statue," Pramoda Devi Wadiyar wrote to Suttur Swamiji.

Meanwhile, the Mysore Palace sources said that they had received an acknowledgement of the delivery of the letter on July 18 but a reply from the Suttur Mutt is awaited.

KRS bagina: Mysuru Mayor upset

Upset over not being offered a chair on dais at CM's bagina programme at KRS Dam this noon, In-Charge Mayor of Mysuru Sunanda Palanetra sat on a chair below the dais, not attending the main event. When reporters questioned, she politely denied that she was upset. [Pic. by Vinay Karekura]

Addressing reporters at Kabini Dam, the CM said that there was some confusion regarding who will design the garden in front of the Kabini Dam — whether the Government (Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Limited) or a private player. "We will discuss the issue and give consent to set up the garden within this year," he added. After the bagina rituals at KRS Dam, the CM will fly to Bengaluru in the chopper. Tomorrow again he is scheduled to come to Mandya district where he will inaugurate a slew of programmes at K.R. Pet and Srirangapatna.

Congress leaders plotting against DKS: Bommai

Mysuru, July 20 (PM&BCT)- At the Mysore Airport in Mandakalli, CM Basavaraj Bommai said that KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar was unable to discharge his duties properly despite being in the party's top post due to conspiracy hatched by his own party members. He was reacting to media persons on the comments made by Shivakumar in Mysuru yesterday that Bommai is a remote-controlled CM.

"Poor chap, Shivakumar is nursing an ambition to become the CM and seeing his own party members conspiring against him, he is frustrated. He and Siddharamaiah are like two banks of a river and they will never meet. Let both see what is on their plate before commenting on the contents of somebody else's plate. It will be fun to watch them in future," he said.

The Centre has released Karnataka's GST share of Rs. 8,800 crore and it is not right to blame the Centre for it. On Mysuru Mayoral Poll, the CM said reservation matrix will be announced soon, facilitating the elections.

V.V. Puram Traffic Police avert disaster waiting to happen

Take action, streamline traffic and vehicle parking near a school in Vontikoppal

Mysuru, July 20 (KS)- Following publication of the letter in 'Voice of the Reader' column titled 'Disaster waiting to happen?' in yesterday's Star of Mysore, V.V. Puram Traffic Police, this morning, swung into action and regulated the movement of vehicles besides streamlining parking of vehicles.

In the letter, the reader had highlighted traffic menace on 2nd Main Road in Vontikoppal, in front of Nirmala Convent School, during School opening and closing hours, which was causing a lot of inconvenience to the public.

The reader had stated that two-wheelers, three-wheelers and four-wheelers, which drop/pickup kids, were haphazardly parked without any consideration for road users & pedestrians and it is a common sight to see vehicles occupying half the road, causing traffic jams.

BEFORE: Traffic jam on 2nd Main Road in Vontikoppal.

Taking the matter seriously, V.V. Puram Traffic Police, led by Inspector Prasanna Kumar and Assistant Sub-Inspector M.V. Murali, who swung into action this morning, created awareness among drivers of school autos and vans about traffic rules and regulations and also about disciplined parking of vehicles without causing inconvenience to other road users.

AFTER: Orderly vehicle parking on 2nd Main Road in Vontikoppal.

The Cops made the drivers park their vehicles in a line on the roadside for smooth flow of traffic and movement of pedestrians, especially senior citizens.

In future too Traffic Policemen will be deployed on the road to regulate traffic and to see that vehicles are not parked haphazardly on the road which could lead to traffic jam.

WORD OF THE DAY

Inscrutable

Pronunciation: in-SKROO-tuh-bul.
Meaning: Inscrutable means "not readily investigated, interpreted, or understood." It often describes what is mysterious or difficult to comprehend.
Origin: Scrutinising the inscrutable may be futile: even close scrutiny can fail to decipher it. Scrutinising the scrutable, on the other hand, is likely to yield some understanding. All of these scrut- words have the same Latin root: scrutari, meaning "to search or examine." While scrutiny, scrutinise, and inscrutable all prove themselves useful in everyday discourse, English speakers don't tend to call much on scrutable, which functions as a synonym of comprehensible.
Example: "Rosters were reconstructed by enlisting former NHLers, players from the KHL and other leagues in Europe & from the college ranks and major-junior level. There is enough of a mixture of guys who are a bit past their prime and others who are relatively unknown or waiting to be discovered to make outcome more inscrutable than usual." — Marty Klinkenberg

THE ODD WORD

Ichthytaxidermy

Fish taxidermy.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

In the buff

Meaning: You use the term 'In The Buff' to indicate that someone is naked.
Origin: Interestingly, the origin of the term 'in the buff' refers to a buff-coloured coat of lightweight leather worn by English soldiers until the 17th century. Originally, being "in the buff" was a reference to wearing this coat. The latter meaning is an allusion to the colour of light-brown to yellowish human skin, and was first seen in the 1602 work by Thomas Dekker, Satiro-mastix or the Untrussing of the Humorous Poet: "No, come my little cub, doe not scone mee because I go in Stage, in Buffe, heer's veluet too." At the time, "in stag" also meant "naked."
Example: "I was horribly embarrassed when I accidentally walked in on Peter while he was in the buff."

QUOTE BOX

I have been a film buff all my life and believe that the finest cinema is fully the equal of the best novels. —Salman Rushdie

China to host Asian Games in 2023 after COVID postponement

Hangzhou, July 20- China will host the 2022 Asian Games in 2023, organisers said yesterday, after postponing the event in Hangzhou because of COVID. The Games will now be held in Hangzhou from Sept. 23 to Oct. 8, 2023, the Olympic Council of Asia (OCA) said.

The event was originally scheduled to be held in September this year, but organisers in May postponed it as China tried to stamp out a large COVID resurgence in several parts of the country. Hangzhou lies less than 200 kilometres (120 miles) from the country's biggest city Shanghai, which endured a month-long lockdown earlier this year as part of the ruling Communist Party's zero-tolerance approach to the virus.

The OCA said on Tuesday that the new dates were chosen to avoid "conflict with other major international sporting events".

The Asian Games typically attract over 10,000 athletes from across the region.

China is the last major economy committed to stamping out domestic spread of the virus through harsh lockdowns, mass testing and strict controls on international travel.

But that has hurt the country's international sporting ambitions, with the world's most populous nation cancelling or postponing almost all events since the start of the pandemic, with the exception of this year's Winter Olympics in Beijing.

The World University Games, scheduled to begin in June in Chengdu and already delayed from last year, have also been postponed again, until 2023.

FSDL moves Supreme Court as AIFF Crisis Deepens

New Delhi, July 20- Indian football being hit with a FIFA ban looked a real possibility yesterday after the commercial partners of the sport's governing body in the country approached Supreme Court over contentious clauses in the draft constitution.

Many State Associations and Football Sports Development Limited (FSDL), All India Football Federation's (AIFF) marketing partners who run the Indian Super League (ISL), have both filed separate intervention applications in the Apex Court with the main bone of contention being which among the I-League and ISL would be the country's top-tier league going ahead.

In its application, FSDL has mentioned that the SC-appointed Committee of Administrators (COA) has "failed" to take into consideration its objections and also "rejected" certain suggestions. The case will come up for hearing on Thursday.
